Brief Biography

Charmaine was called to the Bar in 2006. She obtained her LLB (Hons) from the University of Exeter and completed the PCLL at the University of Hong Kong.

Charmaine has over 10 years of litigation experience. She has a broad civil practice in line with Chambers' profile with a particular interest in commercial and personal injury matters. She has experience in handling litigation involving breach of contract, breach of fiduciary duties, negligence and Chinese law and custom. Her experience in personal injury work includes industrial accidents, road traffic accidents and accidents on board vessels.

Charmaine has appeared in High Court trials, both in her own right and when being led by senior counsel. Apart from doing cases in her own right, Charmaine has worked with a variety of silks and senior juniors in both civil and criminal matters.

Charmaine was a Part-time Lecturer at the School of Law of City University of Hong Kong between 2007 and 2008. She serves as a committee member of the Special Committee on Welfare and Sports of the Hong Kong Bar Association since 2007. She also served as a representative of the Hong Kong Bar Association in the Joint Professional Sports Committee (now known as the Recreation and Sports Club for Hong Kong Professional Bodies) between 2009 and 2012.

Charmaine sat as a Deputy Presiding Officer of the Labour Tribunal in 2020.
