Selected Awards & Recognitions

“Jeremy Chan of Denis Chang’s Chambers is identified by one interviewee as “one of the top three juniors in the field” and by another as “one of the most prominent counsel here.” Further sources variously describe him as “tough and very thorough,” “very knowledgeable and smart” and “a very measured practitioner of great objectivity who explores all the options for a settlement.” Significantly, he is commended as a “very numerate barrister with good commercial sense,” traits which equip him particularly well to tackle high-value or financially complex cases.”

Chambers & Partners Asia-Pacific 2020 – Family / Matrimonial (Bar) – Spotlight Table

“Jeremy Chan of Denis Chang’s Chambers is widely regarded as “one of the top family practitioners,” the source of this observation going on to observe: “He knows this stuff inside out. He’s in all the big family cases, all the solicitors’ firms go to him, he’s a very solid and powerful advocate, both on paper and in court, and he is always able to answer the judge’s questions.” He is particularly recommended for cases with complex financial issues and often acts for prominent, high net worth individuals.”

Biography

Jeremy grew up in Hong Kong and was initially educated at German Swiss International School before heading off for Charterhouse in England. Coming from a family of lawyers Jeremy decided at a young age that he would eventually pursue a career at the Bar. After graduating from Charterhouse Jeremy went up to read Physics at New College, University of Oxford before studying law at the College of Law in London. He obtained his Postgraduate Certificate in Laws at The University of Hong Kong.

Jeremy has served as Tutor in Equity & Trust for LLB Undergraduates and as Honorary Lecturer in the Department of Law at The University of Hong Kong, and an occasional Civil Advocacy Tutor and Assessor for the PCLL. Jeremy is a Voting Member of The University of Hong Kong Foundation.

Jeremy has been a Member of the Bar Council of the Hong Kong Bar Association (2004/2005; 2009 – 2011) and various Special Committees of the Bar, including the Special Committee on Family Law (2008 – current; Vice-Chairman 2016 – current).

Jeremy sits as an Adjudicator on the Registration of Persons Tribunal (2013 – current), was on the Disciplinary Board Panel under the Land Survey Ordinance and was a Member of the Discussion Forum for Young People in the Central Policy Unit of the Hong Kong Government.

Jeremy enjoys a broad civil practice, concentrating particular emphasis upon private client work and Chancery matters, in particular matrimonial finance & family law, inheritance & probate, trust & administration, conveyancing & land disputes.

Jeremy is a CEDR Accredited Mediator.
