PRACTICE PROFILE

Simon is a dual-qualified lawyer, called to the Hong Kong Bar in 2007 and the California Bar in 2020.

He specialises in personal injuries law, and has advised on numerous cases involving a wide range of matters, including catastrophic injury, workplace accidents, medical negligence, public liability claims, traffic accidents, and industrial disease. His experience representing both claimants and defendants – among them over 30 local and international insurance companies – has provided him with insight across the spectrum of litigation.

In addition to his litigation practice, Simon has been actively engaged in mediation since obtaining accreditation in 2008. He has mediated over 200 disputes involving diverse subject matter.

Simon served as a Deputy District Judge in 2025 and 2026, and Deputy Presiding Officer of the Labour Tribunal in 2024 and 2025, reflecting his ongoing commitment to public service and the administration of justice.
